The Damien Center earns second consecutive 4-Star Rating from Charity Navigator
Leaders in the fight against HIV in Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS, 6/19/18 – The Damien Center’s strong financial health and commitment to accountability and transparency have earned it a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, America’s largest independent charity evaluator. This is the second consecutive time that The Damien Center has earned this top distinction. Charity Navigator serves as the nation’s largest independent charity evaluator.

“The Damien Center’s exceptional 4-star rating sets it apart from its peers and demonstrates its trustworthiness to the public,” according to Michael Thatcher, President & CEO of Charity Navigator. “Only a quarter of charities rated by Charity Navigator receive the distinction of our 4-star rating.”

“We are proud of our 4-Star Charity Navigator rating,” says Jerry Parsons, Interim President and CEO of The Damien Center. “This rating exemplifies the integrity of our governance and financial accountability.”

The Damien Center’s rating and other information about Charity Navigator can be found on www.charitynavigator.org. The Damien Center is Indiana’s oldest and largest AIDS service organization. It is a leading resource, provider and advocate for comprehensive HIV/AIDS care, prevention, education and related services.
